

Form TSP-3 Designation of Beneficiary

October 2013

For Federal civilian employees, members of the uniformed services, and beneficiary participants

Use this form to designate a beneficiary or beneficiaries to receive your Thrift Savings Plan (TSP) account after your death. If you would like your TSP account to be distributed according to the statutory order of precedence, do not complete this form. (See the instructions inside for an explanation of the order of precedence.) This Designation of Beneficiary form will stay in effect until you submit another valid Form TSP-3 or you cancel it. The beneficiary designation(s) you provide on this form will automatically cancel all previous designations you submitted. Complete this form in accordance with the instructions. Do not alter or change any information you provide on the form. Make a copy of this form for your records and send the original to the TSP. Do not give this form to your agency or service.

Mail the original to: Thrift Savings Plan P.O. Box 385021 Birmingham, AL 35238

Or fax to: 1-866-817-5023

If you have questions, call the toll-free ThriftLine at 1-TSP-YOU-FRST (1-877-968-3778) or the TDD at 1-TSP-THRIFT5 (1-877-847-4385). Outside the U.S. and Canada, please call 404-233-4400 (not toll free).

You will receive a confirmation of your designation once your form is processed.

FORM TSP-3, INFORMATION AND INSTRUCTIONS FOR PAGE 1

This form stays in effect until you submit another valid Form TSP-3 naming other beneficiaries or cancelling all prior designations. It does not affect the disposition of any other benefits you may have such as a FERS Basic Annuity, a CSRS annuity, or military retired pay.

Complete this form only if you want payment to be made in a way other than the following statutory order of precedence:

- 1. To your spouse;
- 2. If none, to your child or children equally, and to descendants of deceased children by representation;
- 3. If none, to your parents equally or to the surviving parent;
- 4. If none, to the appointed executor or administrator of your estate; or
- 5. If none, to your next of kin who would be entitled to your estate under the laws of the state in which you resided at the time of your death.

In this order of precedence, a child includes a natural child (even if the child was born out of wedlock) and a child adopted by the participant; it does not include a stepchild or a foster child who was not adopted. Note: If your natural child was adopted by someone other than your spouse, that child is not entitled to a share of your TSP account under the statutory order of precedence. "By representation" means that if a child of yours dies before you do, that child's share will be divided equally among his or her children. "Parent" does not include a stepparent unless the stepparent adopted you.

Making a valid designation. To name specific beneficiaries to receive your TSP account after you die, you must complete this form, and it must be received by the TSP on or before the date of your death. Only a Form TSP-3 is valid for designating beneficiaries to your TSP account(s); a will or court order (i.e., divorce decree) is not valid for the disposition of a TSP account. You may, however, designate your estate or a trust as a beneficiary on Form TSP-3.

You are responsible for ensuring that each page of your Form TSP-3 is properly completed, signed, and witnessed. Do not submit an altered form; it may be deemed invalid. If you need to correct or change the information you have entered on the form, start over on a new form.

Changing or cancelling your Designation of Beneficiary. To cancel a Form TSP-3 already on file, follow the instructions for Section II.

Keep your designation (and your beneficiaries' addresses) current. It is a good idea to review how you have designated your beneficiaries from time to time — particularly when your life situation changes (e.g., through marriage, divorce, the birth or adoption of a child, or the death of a beneficiary).

By law, the TSP must pay your properly designated beneficiary under all circumstances. For example, if you designate your spouse as a beneficiary of your TSP account, that spouse will be entitled to death benefits, even if you are separated or divorced from that spouse or have remarried. This is true even if the spouse you designated gave up all rights to your TSP account(s). Consequently, if your life situation changes, you may want to file a new Form TSP-3 that changes or cancels your current beneficiary designation.

Unless you designate a contingent beneficiary, the share of any primary beneficiary who dies before you do will be distributed proportionally among the surviving designated TSP beneficiaries. If none of your designated beneficiaries is alive at the time of your death, the order of precedence will be followed.

SECTION I — Participant Information. For this and all sections of this form, carefully type or print the requested information inside the boxes using black or dark blue ink.

Check the box that indicates whether you intend your beneficiary(ies) to receive funds from your civilian, uniformed services, or beneficiary participant account (i.e., an account inherited by the spouse of a deceased TSP participant). If you have a civilian and a uniformed services account and want to designate the same beneficiaries and shares for both accounts, check both boxes. If you have a civilian and/or uniformed services account in addition to a beneficiary participant account, you will need to complete a second Form TSP-3 to designate beneficiaries for your beneficiary participant account. If you have more than one beneficiary participant account, you will need to complete a separate TSP-3 form for each beneficiary participant account since every beneficiary participant account has its own account number. Note: To avoid the possibility of having your form rejected, be sure to provide the correct account number (civilian/ uniformed services or beneficiary participant) and check the correct box(es) that corresponds to the account for which you want to designate beneficiaries.

If you use an Air/Army Post Office (APO) or Fleet Post Office (FPO) address, enter your address in the two available address lines (include the unit designation). Enter APO or FPO, as appropriate, in the City field. In the State field, enter AE as the state abbreviation for Zip Codes beginning with 090-098, AA for Zip Codes beginning with 340, and AP for Zip Codes beginning with 962-966. Then enter the appropriate Zip Code.

If you have a foreign address, check the box to indicate that this is a foreign address and enter the address as follows:

First address line: Enter your street address or post office box number, and, if applicable, apartment number.

Second address line: Enter the city or town name, other principal subdivision (e.g., province, state, county) and postal code, if known. (The postal code may precede the city or town.)

City/State/Zip Code Fields: Enter the entire country name in the City field; leave the State and Zip Code fields blank.

SECTION II — Cancellation. To cancel a Form TSP-3 already on file without naming new beneficiaries, check the box in Item 10, sign and date the form, and have it witnessed. If you check this box, your account will be paid according to the order of precedence described earlier. Do not complete this section if you intend to name new beneficiaries in Section IV. Your new designation(s) will automatically cancel any previous designation(s) on file with the TSP.

SECTION III — Signatures. Sign and date the form on all pages on the same date. Do not ask the individuals you name as beneficiaries of your TSP account to witness your Form TSP-3. A person named as a primary or contingent beneficiary of your TSP account who is also a witness cannot receive a share of the account. A witness must be age 21 or older.

This form is designed to be read by an optical scanner. To ensure that your request is not delayed, carefully type or print the information requested using black or dark blue ink. Leave a space between words, but not between the digits in your account number. Type or print legibly inside the boxes. If you print by hand, use simple block letters. Limit your responses to the number of available boxes. Do not alter this form or the information you enter. Altered forms may be rejected.

To name a primary beneficiary:

- Check the box that indicates the beneficiary's relationship to you.

- If the beneficiary is a trust, check the box marked "Trust." Enter the name of the trust and the trustee's name and address in the boxes indicated. Enter the EIN, if available. Leave the date of birth boxes blank. Note: Filling out this form will not create a trust; you must have a trust that is already established.

- If the beneficiary is your estate, check the box marked "Estate." Enter the name of the estate and the executor's name and address in the boxes indicated. Enter the EIN, if available. Leave the date of birth boxes blank.
- If the beneficiary is a legal entity or corporation, check the box marked "Legal Entity/Corporation." Enter the name of the entity in the boxes indicated. Enter the legal representative's name in the boxes marked "Trustee/Executor," and provide the legal representative's address. Enter the EIN, if known. Leave the date of birth boxes blank.

SECTION V — Contingent Beneficiary Designations. Do not complete this page if you are not naming contingent beneficiaries. You may designate one or more contingent beneficiaries for each primary beneficiary you name on Page 2. The contingent beneficiary(ies) you name will share the portion of the TSP account that you designated for a specific primary beneficiary who dies before you do. For example, Joe Brown is one of your two primary beneficiaries, and his share is 30% of your account. If you designate Mary Brown and Sue Brown (Joe's daughters) as his contingent beneficiaries, and each is to get 50%, each would get 50% of Joe's portion. Since Joe's share is 30% of your account, each will get 15% of your account. (You cannot designate contingent beneficiaries for contingent beneficiaries. In this case, you cannot designate contingent beneficiaries for Mary or Sue Brown.) For another example of this situation, see Example 2 below.

Check the box that indicates the contingent beneficiary's relationship to you. If you are only naming one contingent beneficiary for a primary beneficiary, the share for that contingent beneficiary must be 100%. If you name more than one contingent beneficiary for a primary beneficiary, the combined share values for those contingent beneficiaries must equal 100%.

Provide the identifying information for contingent beneficiaries according to the instructions for designating primary beneficiaries in Section IV. For each contingent beneficiary you designate, enter the full name, share, address, and Social Security number (SSN) or other tax ID (such as Employer Identification Number (EIN)). If you do not have all the requested information, you must provide at least the contingent beneficiary's name and share. You must also provide the primary beneficiary's name and tax ID information (e.g., SSN or EIN, if available) or date of birth.

If you want to name the same contingent beneficiary for multiple primary beneficiaries, you should list your contingent beneficiary multiple times in order to link it to each primary beneficiary.

If you are naming more than 3 contingent beneficiaries, photocopy Page 3 of this form. Enter your name and TSP account number on the top of each page and follow the instructions for completing Section V. You must sign and date all additional pages; the same two witnesses who signed Page 1 must also sign and date all pages, including any extra pages, that you submit to the TSP.

Note: If a named beneficiary dies, you may prefer to submit another Form TSP-3 to change your designation(s).

EXAMPLES. Below are examples of how to designate contingent beneficiaries.
